Goodbye meester Wijnand

Master Wijnand is going to say goodbye to us and enjoy his well-deserved retirement!

He has had a very nice career at several schools of Zonova and has worked twice at Klaverblad. Nice that he gets to end his career with us. Friday, November 22 is his last day. If you want to say hello to him, don't forget to stop by.

We would like to thank him very much for his efforts and wish him a wonderful retirement!

Fortunately, we have now also found a successor for him. Jasmine Vyas will join us from Friday, November 22. She will take over the work of master Wijnand. A large part of her work will be keeping the student records. In short, a new face at the front desk in the morning. We are very happy with her and look forward to a pleasant and good cooperation. She will be present five mornings a week. She introduces herself in this newsletter.

Introducing

Hi all,

My name is Jasmine and I will soon start working at Klaverblad as an administrative assistant. I get a lot of energy from contributing to education in Amsterdam-Zuidoost and developing myself in a learning environment.

You will see me at the front desk on a regular basis. I am always ready to help anyone with questions or provide support where needed. With my ICT skills and social engagement, I look forward to joining the team at Cloverleaf. So feel free to stop by for a chat or if there is anything I can do for you!

See you soon and have a great day!

National schoolbreakfast

Last Wednesday we again participated in the National School Breakfast. After all, eating breakfast is very important to start the day with enough energy and focus. It looked cozy in the groups and the students enjoyed it! Beautiful how the children below independently prepare their breakfast 😊

Review week of parents drop in

The first week of parent walk-ins also took place again. It is always nice to see so many parents sitting in the classrooms watching the lessons or the work of their child. Also for the children it is special when their parents are there. So thank you also on their behalf for this nice turnout and we are already looking forward to the second week which will take place in February.

Of course, you will be reminded of this!

Sinterklaas

Next Saturday, St. Nicholas will return to our country. We are already busy with the preparations. The teachers will keep you informed about things like putting the shoe and the like. On Thursday, December 5, we will celebrate St. Nicholas. After arrival there will be a short communal part in the hall with the groups 1 to 4 and Sinterklaas. Parents are allowed to attend. After singing a few songs, the groups will go to their own classrooms and Sinterklaas will visit the groups this year. He will start around 8:50 am with the class visits.

A preliminary request to the parents who will be present in the hall at the common part. There is no time to make selfies with Sinterklaas. He has a busy day ahead of him. There will undoubtedly be photos taken in the classrooms and shared via Social Schools. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

The children are free at noon that day!

Report interviews

In the week of December 9, the^{1st} report interviews will take place. Starting Monday, December 2, you can register for these via Social Schools. So keep a close eye on the app 😊

Because the cooperation between parent, school and child is of great importance for the optimal development of our children, we expect all parents to attend the meeting. So don't forget to sign up!

Parent's morning

New parent mornings are coming up again. Dates and times will be shared below. Because we would like to connect with what you as a parent would like to know more about, a poll will be put out through Social Schools next Monday. The request to parents who are willing and able to attend to fill it out.

Parent mornings will be organized by our Parent Child Advisor Margarat Mulder.

There will also be a parent morning where we will take you through mediation. What is a conflict? How can it arise and most importantly how can we resolve it in a peaceful manner. All of our students are learning this and our student mediators have learned to help children do this. We would like to give you an insight. Miss Ragnild is the trainer of the student mediators. She will be hosting this morning.

For parent mornings, the walk-in is at 8:30 and we start at 8:45.

The following dates have been set:

Data	Onderwerp
Thursday 13 februari	To be determined
Wednesday 12 maart	Mediation with juf Ragnild, resolving conflicts peacefully
Thursday 10 april	To be determined
Thursday 12 juni	To be determined
